- (1) Business shall be taken in the following order:

Welcome to new and appointed delegates

Minutes of previous meeting, and Matters Arising

Reports

Any motion the consideration of which was adjourned at the previous meeting

Motions

Class Struggle

Correspondence and other Urgent Business (to have been notified to the Chair before commencement of meeting).

- (2) Quorum: The business and decisions of the Council shall only be binding and bona-fide where the quorum is in place. The Quorum shall consist of representatives of no less than 4 affiliated trade union branches numbering 5 people, including male and female gender representation.
- (3) Motions
Notices of motions from affiliated Branches shall be sent to the Secretary in writing not less than 5 working days before a Council meeting at which they are to be discussed. Such motions shall be only from affiliated branches and placed upon the Agenda in the order in which they are received by the Secretary.
- (4) Motions shall be discussed only where the meeting quorum is in place at the start of the debate. The mover of any original motion, but not an amendment, shall have the right to reply, but no other delegate shall be allowed to speak more than once on the same question unless permission be given to explain, or on point of order addressed to the Chair, when the remarks made must be strictly confirmed to the explanation or point of order. Seven minutes shall be allowed to the mover of the resolution, and five for each succeeding speaker. The mover shall have four minutes to reply to this discussion, but they shall introduce no new matter into their reply.
The time limit for speakers shall not apply in a special address to the Council.
- (5) If an amendment be carried it shall displace the motion and itself become the substantive motion, where-upon any amendments may be moved thereto. The Chair may demand that all motions and amendments shall be handed up to them in writing.
- (6) When an amendment is made to an original motion, no second amendment shall be discussed until the first amendment is disposed of
- (7) When the delegates consider a question has been sufficiently discussed, the motion may be proposed 'That the question be now put'. If this proposition is carried the Chair shall give the mover of the original motion the opportunity to reply after which the motion under discussion shall immediately be put to the vote.
- (8) The decision of the Chair on any point of order shall be final.
- (9) In the case of voting being equal the Chair may make a second and casting vote.
- (10) No resolution passed by the Council shall be rescinded or amended at the same meeting at which it was passed. Notice of its amendment or rescindment must be given as provided in Standing Orders no 2, but the resolution shall not be rescinded or amended unless by the consent of two-thirds of the delegates present at the meeting when it is considered.

- (11) Any delegate desiring to address Council must identify themselves and their union and address the Chair, and when any delegate is called to order they shall resume their seat until the point is decided.
- (12) Any delegate may for stated purposes move the suspension of Standing Orders. The motion on being seconded shall be forthwith put to the meeting without debate or amendment, and if two-thirds of the delegates present vote in favour thereof, but not otherwise, the suspension shall immediately take effect.
